A Proteſtant

INDEX

TO

Mr. Lock——t's Memoirs.

Price Six Pence.

INDEX

A Protestant

INDEX

Mr. Lock[illegible] Memoirs.

Price Six Pence.

287 b. 19
3

A Protestant

INDEX

TO

Mr. Lock——t's Memoirs,

Concerning the

AFFAIRS

OF

SCOTLAND.

LONDON,

Printed for J. Roberts, near the Oxford-Arms in Warwick-Lane. 1714.

A Protestant

INDEX

TO

Mr. Lock---'s Memoirs

Concerning the

AFFAIRS

SCOTLAND.

LONDON.

Printed for J. Roberts, near the Oxford-Arms in Warwick-Lane. 1714.

Introduction.

AS this Book is of very great Conſequence to all true Britons, eſpecially thoſe who have any Value for their Religion or Liberty, which, had the pernicious and trayterous Deſigns of ſome, couch'd here, taken Effect, muſt have inevitably been loſt; So, for the greater Eaſe of thoſe who have neither Will nor Leiſure to read the Scotch Memoirs through, I have here added an Index, whereby the Reader may turn inſtantly to the moſt remarkable and bold Strokes contain'd in it. I queſtion not but every Perſon who reads this Book, will, at firſt Sight, underſtand the Meaning of theſe following Terms, ſcatter'd almoſt in every Page, viz. Royal- liſts,

liſts, Cavaliers, Loyaliſts, thoſe well in-clin'd to the Royal Family and Church, Country Party, Royal and Loyal Intereſt, honeſt Men, Tories, Epiſcoparians, &c. and the King; which you will find continually ſet in Oppoſition to theſe Words,—— Phanaticks, Antimonarchical, Preſbyterian, Hanov——n Party, Revoluti-oniſts, Rebels for the Union and the Proteſtant Succeſſion.

The Pages where moſtly theſe Terms are explain'd, are theſe, 2, 3, 4, 6, 9, 10, 21, 25, 26, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 37, 38, 39, 40, 44, 48, 50, 55, 64, 65, 67, 71, 74, 77, 78, 79, 88, 94, 96, 100, 107, 108, 112, 116, 140, 145, 196, 197, 198, 199, 214, 322, 323, 326, 341, 343, 344, 345, 347, 348, 349, 350, 352, 354, 355, 356, 357, 358, 359, 360, 361, 362, 363, 364, 365, 366, 367, 368, 369, 370, 380, 389. Indeed the whole Book is nought elſe but an Explanation, which ſhews you, that, as the Author (to uſe his own Phraſe) is a True-blue Jacobite, and an inveterate Traytor to his preſent Majeſty King George; ſo he has taken particular Care to give the Title of King to his

Popiſh

Popiſh Pretender; the Names of Loyaliſts, honeſt Men, &c. to his Brother Rebels; nd conſequently, to ſet his villainous Deſigns, and wretched Party off, he has igmatiz'd with the odious Characters of banatick, Antimonarchical, Rebels, &c. ll thoſe who were Friends to their eligion and Country; whch he has roughly explain'd, by adding to them e farther (ignominious, as he thinks) itles of Revolutioniſts, Hanoverians, and r the Proteſtant Succeſſion.

THE

THE END

THE INDEX.

N. B. I use the Stile and Phrase of the Author.

THE Cavaliers pleas'd at the Death of K. William, Page
The Church-Party preferr'd to Places,
The Duke of Queensbury's Character,

The Duke of Queensbury averse to our Author's King, —— —— —— ditto

The Earl of Seaford his Character, &c. 22

Duke Hamilton's Character, —— —— 28

—— His Loyalty to King James, — ditto

Lord Dundee's Death prevents Duke Hamilton from rebelling against King William, —— —— —— 29

Mitchel's Club —— what, —— —— 35

Archibald Duke of Argyle, his Character, 44

—— Always an Enemy to the Loyal Interest, —— —— —— ditto

The Act for settling the Succession in the House of Hanover, propos'd to be burnt, and thrown out of the House by 57 Votes, —— —— —— 60

The same Procedure much approv'd of, and commended by our Author, 60, 61

—— —— —— Duke

Duke of Ath——le's Character, —— 62

The Duke of Ath——le joins entirely with the Cavaliers, —— 64

The Duke of Athole very frank and cheerful to enter into any the most desperate Measures to obstruct the Hanoverian Succession, —— —— 65

The great Difference between Jacobites and Cavaliers, —— —— 64

The Earl of Crom——ty's Character, — 66

—— Has a large Share in carrying on the Revolution, and joins with the Marquis of Tweedale, to advance the Hanoverian Succession, —— —— 67

—— Likewise a Writer and Stickler for the Union —— —— ditto

Andrew Fletcher of Salton his Character, —— —— —— 68

—— An Enemy to all Monarchical Governments, —— —— — 71

Who is meant by the Word King, ——— 74, 381
The Arch-Bishop of Glasgow's Character, 87
Earl of Stairs his Character, 95
Earl of London's Character, 98
Earl of Leven's Character, —— 99
Earl of Glascow's Character, 100
Earl of Rothes his Character, 107
Duke of Roxburgh his Character, —— ditto
George Bayly of Jervis-Wood his Character, 108
—— A Favourer of the Hanover Succession, —— ditto
Secretary Johnston his Character, 109
Marquis of Tweedale his Character, — 110
An Expedient of Duke Hamilton's against the Protestant Succession, 116

Sir

Sir James Falconer of Phesdo his Speech, —— 118

Sir William Hamilton his Character, 128

Adam Cockburn of Ormiston his Character, 129

James Duke of Argyle his Character, 132

Earl of Haddington his Character, —— 137

Lord Belhaven's Character, —— —— ditto

Earl of Marr his Character, 139

Earl of Marr gains the Favour of the Tories, on the Account of his being esteem'd an honest Man, and well inclin'd to the Royal Family,

A Resolve in Parliament against the Hanover Succession, and Promoted by whom, —— — — 145

Who, the Head of the Hanoverian, Republican, Whiggish Faction, — — 147

The

The Marquis of Montrose his Character, —— ditto

Cavaliers great Friends to the Succession, — — — — — — 149

Mr. Fletcher of Salton's Scheme of Government, — — — — — 154

Marquis of Amandale his Character, — 179

Earl of Errol his Character, —— 180

Earl of Errol deservedly, and much trusted, by whom, — — — — ditto

Earl Marshal of Scotland his Character, — — — — — 181

Lord Belmerino his Character, —— ditto

The Reason why my Lord Belmerino took the Oaths to the Government, — ditto

A List of the Commissioners to treat of the Union, — — 185, 186

The

The Reaſon why Mr. Lockhart acted as Commiſſioner of the Union, which was on the genteel Deſign of being a Spy, —— —— —— 187

The Union, and in Conſequence, the Succeſſion of the Houſe of Hanover, contrary to Mr. Lockhart's Principles, —— —— —— ditto

Mr. Lockhart's Friends Advice, and how he follow'd it, —— —— 188, 189

The Sayings of Mr. Lockhart's Friends, 190

Mr. Lockhart's unblameable Behaviour, eſpecially towards his preſent Majeſty King George, —— —— 190, 191

The Intereſt of the diſtreſs'd Royal Family increaſes in Scotland, — — 196

Accounts of the Scots Readineſs to ſerve the Royal Family from Time to Time tranſmitted to France, —— —— ditto

Hookes

Hookes arrives with Letters from the French King and King James, to the Duke of Hamilton, the Earl of Errol, the Earl Marshal, and Earl of Hume, —— —— —— 197

The Contents of the said Letters, —— ditto

Hookes his Character, —— —— —— ditto

The Cavaliers the King's Friends, —— 198

—— —— ——

The Cavaliers Answer to the French King's and King James's Letters, — 199

The Cavaliers send over to the French King Captain Henry Stratton, a Person of entire Honour and Honesty, and every way well qualify'd for such an Employment, —— —— ditto

Stratton being well instructed by Mr. Lockhart, sets Sail for Leith, in Captain James Tait his Ship, and arrives safely in France, —— —— ditto

Mr. Lockhart pumps the Tories in England, to see how they stand affected, — — — — — — 200

The

The Duke of Le—ds, the Lord Gran—l, and ſeveral others of the Torias, Sentiments on that Point, —— —— ditto

The Battels of Ramillies and Turin, ſad unlucky Battels, —— —— ditto

King James longs extreamly to be amongſt his Scots Friends, and ſends Letters to them, —— —— —— ditto

—— Particularly to Duke Hamilton, Earl of Errol, Earl Marſhal, and Viſcount of Stormont, &c. —— —— ditto

The Treaty reaſum'd, —— —— 201

The Lord Keeper of England his Speech, —— —— —— —— 202

The Chancellor of Scotland's Speech, 203

Earl of Homes his Character, —— 214

His Death, a great Loſs to the Royal-Family, —— —— ditto

A Mob in Edinburgh, hir'd againſt the Union, —— —— 225

Yet had its Riſe very accidentally, ditto

Earl Marſhal's Proteſtation againſt the Succeſſion, —— — 260

The Adherers to the ſaid Proteſtation, —— —— —— 261

Reſtoring the KING, the moſt feaſable Grounds to go upon to ſave the Country, —— —— —— 277

Cunningham of Eckatt, for raiſing the Parliament, and then declaring for King JAMES, —— —— 280

Mr. Cokran of Kilmeronock, and Mr. Lockhart of Carnwath, deſire Mr. Briſbone to encourage Cunningham to perſevere in his Deſign, —— —— ditto

They advance Cunningham fifty Guineas, and give him Aſſurance, that if any Misfortune befel him, his Wife and Children

Children ſhould be taken Care of, and provided for, — — ditto

Duke Hamilton ſhy in engaging in Cunningham's Deſign, but approves the Meaſure, — — 281

Duke of Athole frankly undertakes what was demanded, and ſeems very keen to have Cunningham's Project executed, dit.

Cunningham's Project broke by Duke Hamilton, — — 283

Another Project by the Duke of Athole and Mr. Fletcher, — 286

Duke Hamilton's Choke-pear, which ſpoils the Project, — — 288

The Chancellor in Parliament preſents a Proclamation diſcharging riotous and ſeditious Meetings, — 290

George Lockhart of Carnwath proteſts againſt the Proclamation, — ditto

The Adherers to the Proteſt, ditto

A Proteſtation againſt the Union, 296

The Cauſe why the Duke of Athole could by no Reaſons be prevail'd on to adhere to the Proteſtation, —— 323

The true and honeſt Deſigns of ſome Gentlemen, —— —— 322

Likewiſe great Stretches made by thoſe Gentlemen, with Deſign that Good might come of it, —— 323

Another Project bit off in half by Duke Hamilton's hollow Tooth, 324

Who is meant by — Our Dutch Ironical Saviour, —— — 340

A Scotch Peer's Bribe, Eleven Pounds, ditto

An Account of the Origin and Progreſs of the Invaſion from France in March 1708 —— —— 341

Moſt People in Scotland for the KING, —— —— — 343

Mr.

Mr. Lockhart of Carnwath conſulted with when the KING would land, 346

Accounts of the Scots great Love for their KING, reach the Ears of thoſe at St. Germains and Verſailles, 347

Hookes ſent from the French King, to treat with the People of Scotland, — 348

Upon what Score Dukes Hamilton and Athole valu'd themſelves, —— 349

Duke Hamilton wonderfully Loyal, — and to whom, —— —— 350

Hookes Lands in the North Part of Scotland, —— — — 351

The Counteſs Dowager of Errol, a very pragmatical Woman, and entirely of her Brother, the Duke of Perthes, Intereſt, —— — — ditto

Hookes concerts Meaſures with the Duke of Athole, —— — 352

What thoſe Meaſures were, — ditto

Papers

Papers ſign'd by ſixteen Noble-men and Gentlemen, in order to bring about the KING's RESTAURATION, 353

Thoſe Papers lodg'd in the Hands of Hookes, to be by him tranſported to France, —— —— —— ditto

The Meaning of the Words, Loyalty, Loyal, &c. —— — — 354

The Duke of Athole's Ambition to become another Monk, —— — 354, 355

Hookes brings Letters from the KING, to the Duke of Hamilton and Earl Marſhal, —— —— — ditto

But they ſend their Anſwers back by another Hand, —— —ditto

A great Schiſm happens among the KING's Friends, —— —— 356

Duke Hamilton, Earl Marſhal, Viſcount Kilſ—th, Kockran of Kilmoronock, Lockhart of Carnwath, Maul of Kelley, Captain Stratton, — are for correſponding with Earl Middleton, —— ditto

And

And are accus'd by the Duke of Athole's Party at the Court of St. Germains, for being Lukewarm, but without Reason, —— —— ditto

Duke Hamilton and his Party are for ten thousand regular Troops to be sent from France, but the Duke of Athole's only for six or seven thousand, —— 357

Duke Hamilton recommends to the KING, to fall upon Measures to satisfy the People as to the Security of their Religion and civil Rights, which by the other was wholly neglected, —— — ditto

Rebellion, what —— — ditto

Hookes assures them, that the KING shall be in Scotland by the next August, 358

But Notice was sent from France, that it could not be done, — —— ditto

A great Wonder that many Loyal Gentlemen had not been hang'd for high Treason, —— —— 359

A great Instance of Loyalty, —— ditto

One

One KING a great Tool to another KING, —— —— 360

Duke Hamilton vindicated from being a Coward in the KING's Affairs, ditto

A Conſultation between the Duke and Mr. Lockhart, —— 360, 361, 362, 363

Mr. Lockhart, on the KING's landing, was to repair to the Shire of Lanerk, there to raiſe and lead his Friends to meet the Duke at Dumfries, there to proclaim the KING, —— —— 363

The Scots Guards did Duty on the Perſon of the KING, the firſt Night he Landed, —— —— —— 364

Holland, the Confederacy, nay, all the Liberties of Europe, much beholden to Jacobite Politicks, —— —— 365

A new Method to eſtabliſh Laws, a free Parliament, and the Proteſtant Religion, viz. with a French Army of ten thouſand Papiſts, and a Popiſh King at the Head of them, —— 366, 367

All

All the World amaz'd, ſave Scotland, 367

Mr. Charles Fleming, Brother to the Earl of Wigton, diſpatch'd by the KING, to acquaint his Friends, that the French Fleet was ready to ſet Sail, and with divers other Inſtructions, —— 369

Mr. Fleming arrives at Slains, and the Earl of Errol immediately ſends him to Perthſhire, &c. —— —— — ditto

The Earl of Errol ſends Mr. George, a Skipper, and Mr. Malcolm, to Pilot the KING up the Firth, — — 370

And likewiſe to advertiſe Capt. Stratton, and Mr. Lockhart of Carnwath, of Mr. Fleming's Arrival and Inſtructions, ditto

But Mr. George gets drunk, and forgets part of his Meſſage, — — ditto

An Account of the KING's Voyage from Dunkirk, to Scotland, and back again, —— — — 370, 371, 372

The Meaning of the Word Rebels, and who they are, — — 374

Never a People so much disappointed as the Loyal Subjects and good Country-men of Scotland, —— — 380

Duke Hamilton's Design to have join'd the KING, — — — — 381

The Revolutioners triumph over all they thought inclin'd towards the KING, — — —— — 382

The Authors of all these villainous and trayterous Dealings, imprison'd merely on Account of Suspicion, —— 383

The Revolution call'd a Rebellion, 402

Postscript.

HERE you have a short Sketch of the principal Matters which this Book gives you an Account of; which, as it came out without the Consent of the Jacobite Party, by a mere Accident, so it shews, that all the Clamours of the Whigs, as if the Succession in the Protestant Line was in Danger, were groundless; and that there was no Probability of having a Popish Pretender on the Throne, if the Meaſures ſome Great Men were in, had met with the hop'd for Succeſs. But I leave the World, in this Reign of Liberty, entirely free to conjecture what they pleaſe. They may imagine, that the Scotch Lords that were ready to have join'd with the Pretender, upon his landing at Leith, did it with no other Deſign, but to have him in their Hands to deliver up to the eſtabliſh'd Government. They may think, that the Invitations to him to come over with ſix thouſand French at his Heels, were given to ſecure our Liberties and Properties, and they may think the Writer of theſe Memoirs, to be a very worthy Gentleman, though he owns himſelf he was a Spy. In ſhort, they may think what they pleaſe, but I ſhall be convinc'd by this Book, that neither Reſtoration nor Revolution, ſo immediate a Bleſſing to this Nation, as the peaceable Acceſſion of King GEORGE to his Proteſtant Subjects.

FINIS.

FINIS.